

Article 10: Miscellaneous

10.1

Personal Information of a Member

- (a) If members appeal a board decision, or bring up a discussion at a members' meeting involving personal information about themselves, the board can disclose other relevant personal information about the members.
- (b) If members appeal a board decision about another member, or bring up a discussion at a members' meeting involving personal information about another member, they must get the other member's written approval first. Then the board can allow members to discuss that personal information about the other person concerned and the board can disclose relevant personal information about the member concerned. If that person does not give approval, the discussion is out of order.

10.2

References to Other By-laws

Some terms in this By-law contain references to other by-laws of the co-op. If those other by-laws have not been passed by the co-op, the board will decide any matters, which would have been included in any by-law.

10.3

Serving Documents

When the co-op serves documents to members in connection with an eviction, it must follow this procedure:

- a separate notice will be given to each member being evicted, and to any member who has left the unit
- if a member is absent or evading notice, the notice can be given by :
 - handing it to any apparently adult person at the unit,
 - posting it in a conspicuous place on some part of the unit (for example, taping it to the door), or
 - sending it by registered mail to the person at the unit.

10.4
Errors or Omissions in Procedures or Notices

A minor error or omission in any action taken or notice given will not affect any decision made by the board and/or members. A member can accept any minor defect in the co-op's procedures. The member can do this in writing, orally or by not objecting at the appropriate time.
